IT WAS IN THE AIR
Was Matrimony in Williamsburg
This Week.

Matrimony was in the atmosphere of Williamsburg this week, and Madam Rumor has it that cupid's darts have pierced the hearts of more young people than we have the pleasure of recording today. These are the victims of the little elf to date:

ROBINSON—WALTRIP.

The marriage of Miss Annabett Waltrip to Mr. Thomas Robinson took place in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. I. S. Boyles, officiating. A large number of invited guests were present to witness the pretty and impressive ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left on the evening train for their future home in Newport News.

BASS—TERTVANT.

At half past four o'clock Thursday afternoon Mrs. Cordelia Lee Servant became the bride of Mr. Herbert O. Bass. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride and was performed by Rev. I. S. Boyles. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bass left on the eastbound C. & O. train the same evening for a tour to Washington and other points. The bridal couple were showered in rice at the depot upon their departure.

GRAHAM—BINNS.

Mr. Sam'l L. Graham, of Jamestown, and Miss Helen R. Binns were married Wednesday in Norfolk, at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. J. R. Binns, by Rev. L. R. Christie. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will reside at Jamestown, Mr. Graham being manager of that fine old estate.

Dr. Boatwright's Address.

Dr. Boatwright, president of Richmond College, delivered a very fine address at the Baptist church last Sunday morning. He appealed to the audience for aid for his institution, and although only $45 were asked, $55 were raised in a few minutes. There has been some adverse criticism to Dr. Boatwright's address, the gentleman apparently forgetting that there was a very famous and a very much alive college almost within sound of his voice. We presume, however, that it was not an intentional slight on the part of this brilliant young educator.

EVANGELIST GARLAND.

Evangelist Robert Garland closed his revival meetings at the Baptist church Wednesday night. He made a profound impression upon the Christian people of Williamsburg, and won many warm friends during his work here. He is an earnest, pious man, and such men do good wherever they go.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves's signature on every box. Twenty-five cents.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use to three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only fifty cents, guaranteed, at all Druggists.

In Society. . .

By Special Correspondent.

We are glad to note the return of gaities which have been rather dormant for the past few months, but as the season advances we hear of many anticipated pleasures, receptions, card parties, &c., and arrival of guests who usually find Williamsburg a most enjoyable place.

Last night, Cameron Hall was a scene of mirth and beauty, it being the occasion of the opening german by the William and Mary Club. At an early hour couples commenced to arrive and not until the oft heard strains of "Home Sweet Home" pealed forth did it occur to the merry dancers that all good things must come to an end. Among those present were: Mesdames Neal, Tyler, Christian and Foster. Misses Batten, of Smithfield; Anne Jones, of Gloucester; Anne Mayo, Martha Clopton and Edith Jones, of Richmond; Peek, of Hampton; Wright, of Toano; Sue Webb, Mary Waller Mercer, Emily Christian, Florence and Garnett Sweeney, Virginia and Julia Armistead, Elizabeth Tyler, Beulah Brooks and Elizabeth Morecock. Messrs. J. T. Christian, J. B. Spencer, T. J. Stubbs, T. N. Page, H. T. Davies, C. O. Barron, R. M. Hughes, Jr., H. H. Foster, R. W. Waldrop, W. W. Snead, R. W. Corbit, E. B. Hutchinson, D. Warriner, J. L. Newcombe, J. M. Coles, J. G. Anderton, S. W. Seldon, J. W. Knepp, J. J. Davies, H. Hundley, F. S. McCandlish, W. Burke, C. V. Spratley, E. M. Curtis, M. M. Phillips, T. B. Smith, W. White and J. N. Moore.

Miss Henrietta Booth is in Norfolk where she attended the marriage of her friend, Miss Lelia Garnett on Wednesday.

Misses Marion Jones and Mary Waller Mercer expect to attend the Carnival in Richmond next week.

Miss Margarette Batten, of Smithfield, is the guest of Mrs. L. G. Tyler.

Miss Mollie Galt spent several days in Norfolk this week.

Miss Lucy Wright, of Toano, is visiting Miss Martha Spencer.

Mrs. C. B. T. Coleman left this week for a visit to friends in Richmond.

Miss Katherine McEnery is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Christian.

Miss Mollie Bush, of Toano, who has been here for the summer, will return to her home to-day.

Miss Elizabeth Hobson, of Richmond, will visit Miss Marion Jones this fall.

Mr. Spencer Lane, having recovered from his long spell of illness, was able to return to his position in Norfolk last week.

Miss Ida Henley, who has been visiting in Washington, is expected home in a few days.

The Athletic Association of William and Mary is much encouraged over this year's football team which is considered one of the strongest they have ever had. Having received challenges from several colleges they hope to gain great glory. The first engagement is with Richmond College to-day, let us hope for a great victory for William and Mary.

Mr. Graham Nichol, of Washington, is a guest at Colonial Inn.

Miss Anne Jones, of Gloucester, is visiting Miss Stubbs on Francis street.

Much pleasure is anticipated at the usual annual Y. M. C. A. reception to be given on next Tuesday evening.
